To be admitted, students must complete at least 52 hours of coursework with a minimum FSU GPA of 2.00 and most of the freshman English composition and mathematics, or an AA Degree. Requirements Major Program of Studies at FSU: 33 hours

FSU | Academic Program Guide

Are you interested in learning systematic ways to find solutions? Do you like to analyze, compare and interpret facts and figures? Do you prefer developing strategies and taking risks based on quantifiable pros and cons? If you are interested in applying your skill set to a variety of careers, this program is for you. Students in this program develop critical thinking, problem solving, and research skills with applications to various fields. Students have opportunities to gain hands-on experience in work settings and contribute to real-world projects. The program provides a solid foundation for graduate study or for careers in industry, government, or nonprofit organizations.

Business & Administration | Academic Program Guide

Acceptance by a faculty committee will be based on a review of the application and transcript. By the end of the spring semester in which the student is applying for admission, the student must successfully complete two General Education English courses and one General Education math course as accepted by FSU Major Program of Studies at FSU: 33 hours

FSU | Academic Program Guide

Do you want to be a part of the workforce in advertising, marketing, public relations or digital media production arena? Are you interested in cutting-edge work in information technology and communication? If so, this program is for you. The program provides a solid foundation for graduate study or for careers in industry, government, or nonprofit organizations. The program provides a solid foundation for graduate study or for careers in industry, government, or nonprofit organizations.

Communication & Media | Academic Program Guide

Mapping is FSU's academic advising and monitoring system. Academic progress is monitored each Fall and Spring semester to ensure that students are on course to graduate in a timely fashion. Transfer students must meet mapping guidelines once accepted into their majors. You may view the map for this major at www.academic-guide.fsu.edu.

FSU | Academic Program Guide

Florida State University's College of Social Work offers a rigorous curriculum that provides students with the knowledge and skills necessary to become effective social workers. The program is designed to prepare students for a variety of careers in the social work field, including clinical social work, social work administration, and social work research. The program offers a Bachelor of Social Work (BSW) degree, a Master of Social Work (MSW) degree, and a PhD in Social Work.

MSW Overview - Florida State University

WVFS is happy to provide listeners with a diverse array of quality specialty show programming for your enjoyment. From local news and events to music and entertainment, we have something for everyone. For a complete lineup of our specialty shows, please visit our website at www.wvfs.org. Don't miss a beat, tune in today!

Program Guide - WVFS Tallahassee

Please note: the Academic Program Guide is FSU's official list of majors and minors, and is authoritative in case of discrepancies. (It also contains material comparing similar majors.)

Undergraduate Majors and Minors | Arts and Sciences

Florida State University, distinguished as a pre-eminent university in the state of Florida, is identified by the Carnegie Classification of Institutions of Higher Education as an "R1: Doctoral University, Very high research activity," the highest status accorded to a doctoral-granting university. The wide-ranging scholarship of FSU faculty and graduate students ...